

IRISH RUNNER HYNES FOOLED THE POLICEMAN

He Was Taking Early Morning Spin When Halted by Gallagher.

Early risers and late home-comers were surprised early this morning to see a slim young man with a red mustache dashing through Twenty-third street at a phenomenal rate of speed, followed at some distance by a man with a black mustache and heavily built, who had all the appearance of a Central Office detective. Everybody thought there was something doing, and followed as quickly as they could.

The man with the black mustache kept calling to the other every once in a while, "Not so fast! My heavens! man, you have me winded now."

The crowd in the rear, however, were too far away to hear this. They expected that at any moment the man in the rear would draw a pistol and at least fire a couple of shots in the air. At Third avenue the alert policeman, Gallagher, saw the swift-footed runner coming toward him, and prepared himself to head him off. Much to his surprise, the man in the lead stopped the minute he sighted him to do so. Gallagher got a firm grip on the runner's shoulder just as the second man caught up.

"What did you stop him for?" the second man said.

"I thought you were a Central Office man and you wanted this person arrested," Policeman Gallagher answered.

"Not on your life," replied the second man. "This man is Tom Hynes, the noted runner from Galway County, who has come over here to put all the other runners out of business. He was just taking his early morning spin. A dirt track is too easy for him, and he wanted to try something new, so we let him go over the cobbles and asphalt for a change. He likes to run in the morning. My name is Martin Cowan and I'm the manager of Celtic Park."

"Well, well!" exclaimed Gallagher. "I'm just about to be relieved and I wish the both of you would come around to the East Twenty-second street station. I'd like some of the boys to meet Hynes."

The trio went around to the station and Gallagher took the reserves. In this station-house alone there are twenty-two policemen who belong to the Irish Athletic Club. To them Hynes was a great curiosity. Everybody had read about him and everybody wanted to shake his hand. After this episode Hynes agreed to run Johnny Joyce five miles at the County Galway Men's games in Celtic Park next Sunday, for a handsome silver cup. This silver cup is probably the handsomest prize that has been offered as a trophy this season.

John Flanagan is getting himself in trim to break his own record of 174 ft. in throwing the hammer. It is expected that between 12,000 and 15,000 people will visit Celtic Park to attend the Galway men's athletic games.

M'CLOSKEY DEFEATED.

(Special to The Evening World.)
GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 6.—After eight rounds of lively fighting last night before the newly organized Gloucester Athletic Club, the decision of the referee was given in favor of Blinn McCloskey, of Philadelphia. The bout was scheduled for fifteen rounds, but owing to the small crowd the men refused to go the full distance.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, June 6.

The weather was very warm this morning, causing the horses to sweat very freely. The track was very fast and quite a number of very nice trials resulted. John E. Madden was at the track to see Adell, who was recently purchased by E. B. Smathers. He was allowed to breeze one mile in 1:43 3/5, with about 120 pounds up. There is no denying the fact that this is a very clever horse and Mr. Smathers will have a worthy representative in the suburban, as his one mile and a quarter in 2:06 2/5, with 118 pounds up, was a very good performance. He pulled up sound this morning and, barring an accident, will surely be a star in the Suburban.

The following were the best workouts noted this morning:

WATERLIGHT—Six furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:49 2/5, 1:14 3/5, 1:40 pounds up. Very clever work. He always works well. He may take a notion to run some day and will beat a good field of horses.

AUSTIN ALLEN—Four furlongs in 0:26 2/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Is not up to his usual standard.

INSPIRATION—Galloped one mile in 1:40, with 110 pounds up. A very erratic runner, but very ordinary at best.

ENGLIS—Five furlongs in 0:35 3/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:07, 100 pounds up. A nice colt. Worth remembering.

OXFORD—One mile and a furlong in 2:01 2/5, with 110 pounds up. Just a gallop for this season.

AMBERLACK—Six furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. Is not what he can do.

SILVER—Four furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. A very clever colt and at his best.

KING COLE—Four furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. A counter-fraud and not worth remembering.

ETHEL'S PRIDE—Five furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:51, 1:04 3/5, 100 pounds up. Quite a clever filly and ready any day wanted.

GOLDEN—Five furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. Quite a nice acting colt and sure to run a nice race very shortly.

ORLOFF—Four furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. A counter-fraud and not worth remembering.

ORLOFF—Galloped one mile in 1:40, with 110 pounds up. Is a bad specimen, but it is doubtful whether he will run kindly or not.

LEGATIE—Four furlongs in 0:26 2/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. About it.

ODD ELLA—Six furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Is not what he can do. Perhaps over a distance this filly might do better. His work was good.

TRANSMIT—Five furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Is not what he can do. Perhaps over a distance this filly might do better. His work was good.

Aeronaut—Three furlongs in 0:26 2/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Is not what he can do. Perhaps over a distance this filly might do better. His work was good.

HERNO—One mile and a furlong in 2:02 3/5, 0:51 3/5, 1:18 2/5, 148 3/5, 150 pounds up. Is not what he can do. Perhaps over a distance this filly might do better. His work was good.

INCANTATION—Four furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:49 2/5, 1:14 3/5, 100 pounds up. Best work she has done. Is about at her best.

HAMPTON—One mile in 1:42, 100 pounds up. At her best, as he is fit and in grand trim.

WITTEL—Three furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. She is ready any day.

HARLAN—Galloped one mile in 1:40, with 110 pounds up. Is not yet fit, but he looks very well.

DINAH SHAD—Six furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. Use about her best.

SUCCESS—Five furlongs in 0:24 3/5, 0:50 2/5, 1:15, 100 pounds up. Clever work and worth remembering.

FIRST MASON—Five furlongs in 0:25 3/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Clever work and worth remembering.

Looks much improved and has a nice turn of speed.

STAMORA—Four furlongs—0:24 3/5, 0:51, 1:16, 100 pounds up. Has speed, but does not race to his private trials.

HOORAY—Three furlongs—0:12, 0:24, 0:38, 100 pounds up. A high-class filly and at his very best.

MEDICINE—Three furlongs—0:12, 0:24, 0:38, 100 pounds up. A high-class filly and at his very best.

ADDELL—One mile in 0:24 3/5, 0:49 2/5, 1:14 3/5, 120 pounds up. Very clever work. He always works well. He may take a notion to run some day and will beat a good field of horses.

HYLAND—Galloped one mile in 1:47, with 110 pounds up. Not yet ready to race.

CANNON—One mile and a furlong in 0:26 2/5, 0:52 3/5, 1:17, 100 pounds up. Is not up to his usual standard.

INSPIRATION—Galloped one mile in 1:40, with 110 pounds up. A very erratic runner, but very ordinary at best.

GIANTS MAY HAVE ROW IN PITTSBURG

squad of Pinkerton men. One manufacturer of firearms offered weapons for each player with ammunition.

Meantime the players themselves were quite undaunted, though perhaps no ball club ever invaded the enemy's camp under such adverse conditions.

The writers of Pittsburgh only insist that Clarke should have his men beat the Giants to a pulp, and Dreyfus, in his artful way, is careful to foster such incitement. Previous to going to Boston he is quoted as saying:

"John McGraw, manager of the New York team, must answer to the directors of the National League for his unprovoked attack on me. The time has come when the leader of the Giants must be put on the rack for his conduct. He has been defiant to the rules entirely too long. It's amazing the way he runs things at the Polo Grounds. Umpires seem to be afraid of him. He browbeats them as in the old Baltimore days, and gets away with the tactics."

"Lynch does not want to file any charges against McGraw. He takes the stand that the best way to settle with a man of his calibre is to take a punch at his frame. And if you heard the epithets applied to Lynch you would not blame him. Michael cried through rage. It is true that Flaherty and Lynch were out hunting their tormentors. Flaherty vows that he will take a swipe at McGraw the first chance he gets. It's pretty rough for men to stand by and take the vile sayings heaped on them by McGraw and his band. There must be a ruling on the habit of McGraw, when ordered off the field, of going into a little closet under the grand-stand. It leads to a passageway to the club-house. McGraw has holes out in the partition and can coach his team from that conning tower. Why, he might as well go up into the stand and coach his men. He is clearly violating the rules, and knows it. He is not off the field. I felt sorry for Umpire Johnson. He seemed scared to death, and took all kinds of things from the Giants. Klem umpired a fine game. He wasn't afraid. The National League will have to abolish such ruffians as McGraw."

VAUGHAN TO RACE WURGIS.

Arrangements have been completed for a match contest between Guy Vaughan, with his forty-horse-power Deauville car, and Dan Wurgis, with the new Red Bird. They will come together at the opening of the National Circuit automobile races at Morris Park next Saturday, and despite the presence of the fastest cars in the country in the championship event, the race between Wurgis and Vaughan promises to be the most interesting event of the day.
